Araya is a village located south east of Beirut on the Beirut-Damascus Highway.

- Take the Beirut Damascus Highway pass Hazmieh and Loazieh after the sharp 180 curve turn comes the Araya exit. Take this exit, pass the kiosk and drive into the village.
- Follow the HHH signs..
- There is a road branching to the left with a sign board "stade sportif". You will miss it as a palm tree is blocking the view.
- Follow the road on the same elevation for some time at the end turn left downhill towards the sports place. At the end there is a gate that should be open with some car parking. Alternatively park outside the gate.
- The parking area is not so great for barbeque, so we have to relocate later on stick to liquids.. (BBQ is to be announced on later stage, however, you may bring your salad, sandwiches, AND YOUR CHAIRS, etc...)

Note: If you intend to take the train from Beirut to Araya Station you are 50 years to late....
